

Ostap Sulyk

ostapsulyk@gmail.com

(647)-784-5444

Computer Programming and Analysis student seeking to apply analytical, problem-solving, and interpersonal skills acquired through studying, building real world projects, and participating in numerous off school activities as Intern at Jonah Group.

HIGHLIGHTS OF QUALIFICATIONS:

- 2+ years' experience in providing customer service resulting in high exceptional customer satisfaction
- Great verbal communication and presentation skills.
- Effective team-player that always ensures that every team member is heard.
- Always organized while staying flexible when new opportunities arrive.
- Strong understanding of programming principles as well as data structures and algorithms.
- Welcoming to new challenges, technologies, and opportunities.
- Strong enthusiasm towards innovative technologies and acquisition of new skills.

TECHNICAL SKILLS:

- Java and Spring framework
- Oracle | MySQL
- Rust
- Python | PHP
- OOP and MVC design principles
- React | Vue
- Unix/Linux environment
- Git | UML

EDUCATION:

Computer Programming and Analysis (Advanced Diploma) Sep-2020 - Current

George Brown College, Toronto ON

School projects: Full stack web application for technical support department in hypothetical company to enable tracking service calls, storing information about company's customers, software products and employees.

- Developed and maintained functional and production ready software using agile development methodologies resulting in high team morale and successful project submission.
- Build software applying MVC (Model View Controller) principles and using Git (version control tool) to ensure superior project organization, maintenance, and development process.

- Designed and Created database applying database creation methodology by dividing process of creation database on Conceptual, Logical, and Physical phases, thus eliminating redundancy, and ensuring data integrity.
- Applied time management techniques to achieve outstanding productivity and ensure that project deliverables met deadline with best quality possible.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Waiter

Sep 2018 – Jan 2020

Golden Lion Restaurant & Bar, Etobicoke, ON

- Displayed capability of working in high stress environment and providing outstanding customer service.
- Demonstrated patience and effective verbal communication skills while managing orders and working with customers.
- Ensured clean workplace resulting in increased productivity.
- Displayed ability to learn quickly and become valuable member of crew with as little as 2 days of training.